Travelers of New Jersey Walks to Help Fight Multiple Sclerosis

MARLTON and PARSIPPANY, N.J., July 11, 2007 -- Employees in the Travelers of New Jersey offices in Marlton and Parsippany participated in Multiple Sclerosis (MS) Walks on April 23 in Roxbury and May 7 in Voorhees. Combined, these two New Jersey-based offices raised $6,956 to help fight this debilitating condition.

According to the National MS Society, 400,000 Americans suffer from the devastating effects of MS. Both Travelers of New Jersey offices decided to "Join the Movement" by signing up for MS Walks to help the National MS Society achieve its goal to move closer to a world free of this disease.

"In addition to the MS Walks, employees held fundraisers to help support this important cause," said Phyllis Forsyth, president and CEO of Travelers of New Jersey. "It's great to see how much our employees like to be involved in supporting charitable causes. Our employees are so enthusiastic about supporting the local community."

Travelers of New Jersey supports several local initiatives throughout the year including food, gift and clothing drives. "As a local company, we believe it's important to give back to the communities in which we work and live," added Forsyth.

The Travelers Companies, Inc. (NYSE: TRV) is a leading property casualty insurer selling primarily through independent agents and brokers.
